

Rockville Regional Youth Orchestra

RRYO

Leah Kocsis, Director

Auditions for the 2004-2005 RRYO Season will be held in September.

Open to all interested student musicians grades 4-9 as of September 2004.

The Rockville Regional Youth Orchestra (RRYO) is a unique opportunity for dedicated instrumental music students to further their abilities via participation in a quality youth orchestra program. The RRYO experience is intended to enhance and complement student's existing musical education obtained in schools and through private instruction.

AUDITIONS – September 2, 7, 8, 9, 13, 14, 2004.

- Students must demonstrate proficiency on their respective instrument via selected musical scales, solo selection and sight reading.
- An audition fee of $10 will be charged.
- Orchestra will be comprised of violins, violas, cellos, string basses, flutes, clarinets, oboe, bassoons, trumpets, trombones, french horns, low brass, and percussion.

- Call or email to establish specific audition date and time to fit your schedule.
